American Golf recognized for prestigious website/interactive media award

American Golf Wins at the 6th Annual Horizon Interactive Awards Competition

Indianapolis, IN USA – May 1, 2007 - The Horizon Interactive Awards, a leading international interactive media awards competition, announced the 2007 award winners. The sixth annual international competition recognized excellence in interactive media production among multi-media developers worldwide.

American Golf was recognized for their excellence in interactive media production with a Bronze Award in two categories for their website: Consumer Information and Self Promotion/Company Identity.

The 2007 competition saw nearly 1000 entries from 24 countries around world including: Australia, Canada, Chech Republic, Columbia, Croatia, Germany, Egypt, Spain, France, Great Britain, Hong Kong, Hungary, Indonesia, Israel, Italy, Malaysia, New Zealand, Singapore, South Africa, Syria, Thailand, Turkey, Taiwan and nearly all 50 of the United States. An international panel of judges, consisting of industry professionals with diverse backgrounds, evaluated 19 different categories ranging from online advertising to video games. The 2007 winning entries showcase the best developed interactive media solutions including web sites, CDs and DVDs, online ads, video and more.

“The 2007 competition was a fantastic display of creativity and effective communication blended with technical excellence,” said Mike Sauce, founder of the Horizon Interactive Awards. “Every year, it is amazing to see how designers and developers continue to innovate new and exciting ways for people to experience products, services, and ideas through interactive media.”

The Horizon Interactive Awards holds the annual competition in early spring of each year. For more information visit the Horizon Interactive Awards at www.horizoninteractiveawards.com.
